

"LATTICE enables our international students to develop strong relationships with U.S K-12 educators and with each other, while working together to address pressing issues of our time."

Jack Schulle
Assistant Dean & Professor
International Studies in Education
College of Education
Michigan State University

"LATTICE is a phenomenal resource for educators. LATTICE sessions provide us with new ways of viewing the complicated world in which we live and enable us to integrate these views into our classrooms."

Jennifer Smith
United States
MSU Doctoral Student in Zoology

LATTICE is supported by:

Ingham Intermediate School District
Participating school districts
Michigan State University
African Studies Center
Asian Studies Center
Center for Advanced Study of International Development
Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies
College of Education
Dean of the Graduate School
Dean of International Studies and Programs
Women in International Development Program

LATTICE

Knowledge
Diversity
Respect
Community

"I feel very privileged to be a part of this community of committed educators who view the world as their classroom."

Dwi Agus Yuliantoro
Indonesia
MSU Graduate Student in Curriculum,
Teaching and Educational Policy

There is no fee to join LATTICE. Some school districts generously cover the cost of a substitute for a year of LATTICE sessions.

For more information, contact

lattice@msu.edu
513 Erickson Hall
College of Education
Michigan State University
East Lansing, MI 48824-1034
www.latticeworld.org

LATTICE

Linking All Types of Teachers to International Cross-cultural Education

LATTICE is a learning community and international network that cultivates and supports a global perspective in K-12 classrooms through personal and professional development opportunities.

"As a school administrator, I see LATTICE as an educator's window that allows us to look into the wide world with an open mind, which is an important shift from the traditional view."

Lynn Bartley
Associate Principal
Haslett High School

LATTICE is a professional development opportunity for

- ▶ K -12 teachers & administrators
- ▶ International graduate students
& visiting scholars

LATTICE

A professional development opportunity for educators

LATTICE members meet monthly during the academic year for professional development.

Each session provides opportunities for you to:

- ▶ Meet and connect with people from around the world
- ▶ Learn about local and global issues from MSU experts and others
- ▶ Talk about experiences that shape your world view
- ▶ Gain inspiration from the committed educators you come to know
- ▶ Enjoy traditional foods from around the world

"LATTICE is where we sustain meaningful friendships and explore the various cultures and educational practices of the world village."

Jonathan Nyabuto Choti
Kenya
MSU Doctoral Student in Linguistics

"Every month I look forward to LATTICE because of all the ideas, the people, and the conversation, which is so rich and so wonderful. I share all that with my students and they all gain from it."

Judy Huynh
Palo Public School (Recently Retired Teacher)

LATTICE Teachers:

- ▶ Earn SBCEU credits
- ▶ Provide your students with the global perspective they'll need to succeed in the 21st century
- ▶ Connect with international graduate students and invite them to visit your classroom
- ▶ Prepare your students to thrive in our shrinking world
- ▶ Learn about free and low-cost professional development opportunities in the U.S. and abroad

LATTICE International Graduate Students:

- ▶ Learn more about the U.S. educational system
- ▶ Network with K-12 teachers and share your culture in their classrooms and at LATTICE sessions
- ▶ Receive a stipend when you participate in all monthly LATTICE sessions
- ▶ Be eligible to apply for LATTICE Fellowships

LATTICE is like a family to me! I feel the sense of belonging. Through LATTICE teachers, I get to visit their classrooms, share my stories and learn about American education.

Kang Li
China
MSU Doctoral Student in Higher, Adult, & Lifelong Education