

LATTICE

Linking all Types of Teachers to International Cross-Cultural Education

2016-2017 LATTICE Monthly Session

November 17, 2016 (Session 12:00-04:00 pm)

Spartan Village Community Center, South Lounge

Seeing America Through International Eyes

Photo Voices:

- (1) Dasha Shamrova,
- (2) Cristy Cummings

Student Panel:

- 1) Eddie Wol (James Madison College)
- 2) Maryam Griwal (Waverly High School)
- 3) Usman Tlwana (Waverly High School)

Attendance	: 35
K-12 Educators	: 10
Students	: 16
Visiting Scholars	: 2
Faculty/staff	: 4
Community/Guests:	3

Testimonies

- I really liked the time to talk with the people at the middle school level. I enjoyed hearing from the students.
- It was very interesting to learn about the biggest challenge for international students.
- The photo voice project was eye-opening. I can't wait to share with my students and to try photo voice project with them.
- It made me aware of how welcoming America is to international people.
- Interesting conversation about language barriers in the K-12 classroom.
- Ideas for helping international students adjust to K-12 schools.
- The importance of having cultural competence.

