Session Testimonials

- The graphs, maps, charts were helpful. I'd like my AP World History students to study the MDGs after their exam - do some problem solving for 3 weeks.
- Kang did a great job showing how name can reflect culture – much more than just a name.
- I learned about someone's experience in Korea and how many people lived in the train station during the last economic crisis.
- I plan to use Fair Trade items in my classroom store, so I can begin to talk about the issues we discussed today.
- I plan to share with my students how children in some parts of the world don't go to school because of extreme poverty and hunger.
- I would like to know more about ways to make this information understandable for elementary students.
- I appreciate the variety of opportunities to talk in small groups, and the excellent guidance before each discussion.
