Linking all Types of Teachers to International Cross-Cultural Education

2009-2010 LATTICE Monthly Session:
March 25th, 2010 (12:00 – 4:30 pm)
At Haslett High School

A Journey Through Intercultural Communication

~ Nicole Namy

What's Happening in Our Schools? Intercultural Communication in the Classroom

~ Anne Wade & Alicia Trotman

Session Testimonials

Nicole very delicately addressed the last session through “critical incident.” I appreciate the communication in pairs, table and large group.

I will remember the variety of ways that we can listen and then find ways to discuss, encourage specificity and avoid judgment.

I can use the where I am/what I am ashamed of and what/how am I going to change as an individual and as a counselor.

To prevent adults referring to others as “exotic” and “strange” and “unusual,” it is important for such talks to start at the school level. My appreciation and admiration for Mrs. Wade.

All LATTICE members have opportunities to use various perspectives to broaden students’ worlds. Ann and Alicia did a fabulous job of telling about their shared lessons!

I think revisiting the subject of “othering” in the fall would be beneficial not only for those who have been members for a while but, also new members who are not familiar with the ways we converse and our objectives in this regard.
