Learning how to engage in slowed-down
conversations

Session Testimonials

It was very helpful to speak with individuals from Palestine and Israel in the small group setting. This ties into the first theme of the Michigan Merit Curriculum English 12th grade which is the Power of Story.

The learning opportunity was phenomenal – give me more! The format, dialogue, interaction without lecture!

I was struck how face to face sharing of backgrounds can change politics – when a heart touches a heart, people can change.

I think the slowed-down conversation will be used in my life from now on.
