

LATTICE

Linking all Types of Teachers to International Cross-Cultural Education

2011-2012 LATTICE Monthly Session
Nov. 3, 2011 (Session 12:00 – 4:30 pm)
Haslett High School

The Power of One – Social Change in a Global Context

Bashan Farms - Zimbabwe Soy Processing Project

~ Jane Mutatu

Update on HIV/AIDS in Africa

~ Kimberly Rovin

Naming Activity

~ Ha Thanh Nguyen

Turkish Water Art Demonstration

~ Betul Bilgin

What's Happening in Our Schools and Countries?

~ Hannah Roberts

Session Testimonials

- Jane's story was so intense and touching.
- I really appreciate what Jane Mutatu had to say. It is wonderful how she has helped so many.
- Betul's water art was really beautiful magic. I think more people should learn it and do it for income!
- Very enthusiastic people make it such a warm experience.
- I enjoyed getting to know so many different people.

Attendance: 54

- K-12 Educators: 9
- International Students: 20
- Visiting Scholar: 11
- Faculty/staff: 4
- Community/Guests: 10

